

NEWS LETTER

This celebration was planned to make people aware towards the conservation of wildlife. The Indian Government has also established an Indian Board of Wildlife in the year 1952 which works to improve the responsiveness as well as the awareness of the public towards the wildlife protection. IBWL decided to celebrate this event every year in the month of October for whole week by organizing activities related to wildlife conservation and protection. Wildlife week was celebrated for first time in 1952 with a vision of conservation and protection of animal's life and taking some crucial steps for the prevention from extinction of the species. The main motive of celebration of wildlife week is to raise awareness among general public about wildlife conservation and protection. So that every citizen becomes informed about wildlife in order to make awaken about wildlife protection in India.

NSS College Manjeri has conducted Wildlife week Celebration with variety of programmes on 2-8 October 2019. The whole programmes was organized by the Department of Zoology, NSS College Manjeri.
